When I hold anger in my heart, forgiving God, help me to let it go and to forgive others as you have forgiven me. May I open my heart to others, especially those who have hurt me, and may I forgive as unconditionally as the father of the prodigal son. In a word, may I forgive as you forgive. Amen.

We Want to Hear From You!

From the time our old school building stood in the middle of an open field with the basement serving as our church, to the church we love today, each of our stories are held here. Our church has changed and grown because of each one of us. Look into your hearts and tell us what St. Bartholomew means to you. Did you go through RCIA and your story began there? Were you married here, were you or your children and grandchildren baptized here, and made their first communion here? We are anxiously awaiting your photos (past or recent) of Weddings, Baptisms, and First Communions held here at St. Bartholomew. These are beautiful sacramental moments to share with our parish community through the Building the Future of Hope Campaign video. Do you have past memories or future dreams for St. Bartholomew? In 25 words or less tell us what St. Bartholomew means to you. Our processional cross was repaired by a special group of people who wanted to retain it as part of our history. Our Lady of Guadalupe stands in the chapel as a gift from our parishioners. Each one of us has a story...

Be sure to put your name and phone number on each item before turning them in to the parish office. Pictures will be returned. Must be submitted in writing or through e-mail. Mail to the parish office or drop in the collection basket attention Cindy Hayslette or chayslette@saintbarths.org. Be sure to sign your submission; anonymous submissions will not be accepted.

The Legend of the Shamrock

It was on the lush hillsides of Co. Armagh that Patrick, as a young Bishop in the year 432 AD plucked the tiny shamrock from anonymity and used it to illustrate the Mystery of the Blessed Trinity to the Ancient High Kings of Ireland, thus elevating the Shamrock to its present status of Ireland's National Emblem. The plant has been grown close to the Ancient Monastic Settlement of the Sceillig Rock in Co. Kerry where Irish still thrives as the National Living Language.

If you would like a registration form, they are located in the bulletin rack in the back of church. Drop in the collection basket or mail to the parish office. Thank you.

Chris Hertelendy representing Diocesan Publications (our bulletin publisher) will be at the parish soon. He will be renewing present advertisements and seeking new ones. If interested, please call the parish office. We feel this is an excellent service and that the sponsors get good coverage with their ads. Thanks to you and Diocesan Publications, the bulletin is published weekly at no cost to the parish.

The Leprechaun

The story behind the leprechaun is that he is a tiny elf-like creature living in the forest of Ireland. With him is a pot of gold, often seen at the end of the rainbow. Should you encounter this tiny elf, run quickly and try to catch him, and the pot of gold will be yours. Careful though, because he's a tricky fellow, and will easily slip through your fingers. His shenanigans and playfulness are known to be the curse of the gold hunters!
