We Want to Hear From You!

From the time our old school building stood in the middle of an open field with the basement serving as our church, to the church we love today, each of our stories are held here. Our church has changed and grown because of each one of us. Look into your hearts and tell us what St. Bartholomew means to you. Did you go through RCIA and your story began there? Were you married here, were you or your children and grandchildren baptized here, and made their first communion here? We are anxiously awaiting your photos (past or recent) of Weddings, Baptisms, and First Communions held here at St. Bartholomew. These are beautiful sacramental moments to share with our parish community through the Building the Future of Hope Campaign video. Do you have past memories or future dreams for St. Bartholomew? In 25 words or less tell us what St. Bartholomew means to you. Our processional cross was repaired by a special group of people who wanted to retain it as part of our history. Our Lady of Guadalupe stands in the chapel as a gift from our parishioners. Each one of us has a story...

Be sure to put your name and phone number on each item before turning them in to the parish office. Pictures will be returned. Must be submitted in writing or through e-mail. Mail to the parish office or drop in the collection basket attention Cindy Hayslette or chayslette@saintbarths.org. Be sure to sign your submission; anonymous submissions will not be accepted.

The Archdiocese of Louisville in conjunction with the alcoholic Beverage Control Office in Frankfort will hold an Alcohol Awareness Training Session again this spring. The training session will be on Tuesday, April 13 and will be held in the Saffin Center at Holy Family Parish, 3927 Poplar Level Road at 7:00 pm. If you would like to be an overseer for rentals or wish to help at other parish events or the picnic, you are required to attend. The program will not only cover the ABC regulations and statutes of the Commonwealth of Kentucky but also the requirements and guidelines of the Archdiocese of Louisville. There are legal as well as moral responsibilities for those who serve alcohol at parish events and we cannot stress this enough. Please call the parish office so we can give an accurate account to the Chancery.
